HOLDING THE REINS.

Sadi Carnot's First Official Reception.

PROSPECTIVE ARRANGEMENTS

Grevy Congratulates the New President and Wishes Him Good Luck.

[Associated Press Dispatches to the HERALD.]

PARIS, December 4.—President Sadi Carnot was formally installed in the Elysee Palace this afternoon and later received visits from Ex-President Grevy, M. Rouvier, President Peytial, the budget committee and other leading politicians. The President stated that it was his intention, after the new ministry was formed, to at once close the present session of Parliament after the coming senatorial elections. The resignation of the Cabinet which followed the election of the new President, will to-night be placed in the hands of the new President, and General Brugere will invest the latter with the grand collar of the Legion of Honor, General Faidherbe presiding at the ceremony.

GREVY'S CONGRATULATIONS.

M. Grevy, in an interview with the new President, expressed the hope that M. Sadi Carnot would be happier in the Elysee Palace than he had been and would not be so glad to leave it when the time came to leave. M. Grevy boasted that he slept eight hours last Friday night, and said that he had not had that pleasure for six weeks previously.

M. Sadi Carnot is officially a Catholic, but really a Deist and Spiritualist, accepting the views of his friend Jean Raynaud.

OPINION OF THE PRESS.

The newspapers of this city generally approve of the election of Sadi Carnot, and consider it an augury of peace. Telegrams from the provinces without exception testify favorably to the result of the election. President Sadi Carnot has requested the Ministry to remain in office for the present for the despatch of public business.

ROME, December 4 — The newspapers here congratulate the French people upon the election of President Sadi Carnot.

A TOWN IN RUINS.

Terrible Earthquakes in Southern Italy.

The first shock at Besignano was felt at 5 o'clock in the morning. The people at once fled from their houses and this prevented an awful calamity. The second shock which was much more violent, occurred at 7 o'clock. Besignano is almost entirely destroyed and 4000 persons are rendered homeless, and many are missing. Twenty-five are known to be killed.

Cheaper Correspondence.

LONDON, December 4 —The negotiations between England and France looking to co-operation in working the Channel telegraph wires promise to result favorably. France, as well as England refuses to renew the concession to the submarine company which thus nonplussed will be obliged to sell on England's terms. England, it is thought, will reduce the rate to 2d per word.

A TYPICAL MISER.

His Mania for Accumulating Worthless Trumpery.

Thomas Murray's (of Omaha) claims to distinction as a crank are based upon two characteristics. Like Mrs. Toodles, he buys at auctions and elsewhere all the useless trumpery that can find no other purchaser, and he never pays workmen or any one else except at the end of a lawsuit. With a cool half million he lives in a tumble-down shanty one end of a lot worth a hundred thousand. He is a batchelor and lives by himself, doing his own cooking, in spite of the fact that an aged sister of his, who is compelled to work out for her support, would be only too happy to become his housekeeper. Another building on the same lot serves the purpose of a storehouse for the accumulated trumpery of a quarter of a century. In it may be found old teakettles, in all stages of desuetude, kettles with spouts, kettles with no spouts and kettles with bent and crooked spouts, as well as kettles with neither bottoms nor handles. Rusty stove-drums, crownless hats and axes without handles add to the useless pile. Shovels without handles, brooms with broken handles, mops with neither rags nor handles and baskets without bottoms are as common as the dust which covers the whole collection of gone-to-seed bric-a-brac. Rarely is there anything in the collection of the value of a sou. Tom has been known, however, to turn a penny out of his ancient pile of rubbish. At one time a steamboat blew up near the town and Tom bought the anchor for $1.50. Years afterward a steamboat came along that had lost its anchor. It had to have one or go out of business, and as Tom had the only one in town he multiplied the price he paid for it by 100. The steamboat-owners kicked, but Tom had the anchor and knew his opportunity. The $150 was paid. His propensity for driving hard bargains of this kind makes him the victim of the bad boy's practical jokes occasionally. One morning one of these mischievous young-sters poked his head into the door of Tom's shop and shouted, "Hallo, Tom, have you got such a thing as a spinning-wheel?"

A half hour's rummage in his precious collection of disabled utensils failed to reveal the longed-for spinning-wheel, and the boy departed evidently disappointed.

At noon another boy opened the door, with the greeting: "Say, Tom, have you got any spinning wheels?"

"No," said Murray. "At least I can't find any. How many do you want?"

"Two," answered the boy, with a face as grave as a deacon.

Tom was taking a nap in his chair at 4 o'clock in the afternoon when another boy awakened him by shouting in his ear: "Mr. Murray, have you got any spinning-wheels?"

"Great God!" said Tom, "what a demand for spinning wheels! Got none now, bub, but will have in a few days. Call again."

Tom ordered twenty spinning-wheels, but from that day to this has never set eyes on a customer that wanted one.

He is a most tireless litigant. He sues everybody that owes him on the slightest provocation, and seldom pays anybody else until they sue him. There are fifty suits now pending against him, brought chiefly by laboring men whose hire he has withheld. There is a particular case on the docket now that crawled into that position more than twenty years ago. The amount involved at first was small, the costs now approximate a mountain. Not long ago Murray's contestant, through his lawyer, proposed a compromise. Tom's lawyer was in favor of accepting the proposal, but his client was obdurate.

"No," said he, "get another continuance. Only one witness now on the other side, and he is in Europe for his health. He'll die —— soon, and then we'll have the cinch on em."

This queer genius, of whom the oldest inhabitant can tell amusing stories all day long, went to Omaha in 1854. He was a carpenter by trade and as poor as Job's mouse. He did not work at his trade long, for by speculating in odds and ends he soon acquired money enough to buy some cheap land in what was then the suburbs of the infant town. He has had nothing to do since but to practice his oddities and see his possessions grow into the value of a round half million. His neighbors think there is something wrong with Tom. He thinks it is the neighbors whose wits are kinked.—[Philadelphia Times.

A Big Cave-in in Lackawanna.

The ground in the vicinity of Johnson's mine, near Dunmore, is caving in at a rapid and startling rate. Most of the wells in the neighborhood are drying up, cellar walls are cracking open, and the doorways of some houses are so badly distorted that it is impossible to open the doors. Large fissures have appeared in several places along the surface of the earth, and there are evidences of a lively commotion underground. The noise produced by the crushing of the roof in the mine was so loud that many persons in the vicinity were unable to sleep. Near Johnson's store, fissures are extending in every direction. The neighborhood is thickly settled, and the people do not know at what moment a cave-in may occur that may cause their houses to tumble about their heads.—[Philadelphia Times.

GENERAL NEWS.

Fenian Plots to Murder Lord Hartington.

TRAIN-WRECK IN DAKOTA.

Gleanings of Interest from Mexico —Three Negroes Lynched in Mississippi.

[Associated Press Dispatches to the HERALD.]

LONDON, December 4.—The Morning Post declares that certain Parnellites recently urged Fenians to murder Lord Hartington, which they refused to do. American Fenians then undertook the task, arriving on the continent for that purpose a fortnight ago.

DETAILS OF THE PLOT.

These, in concert with a few Irish Fenians, made an arrangement by which the rails on the road between Kingstone and Dublin were to be removed in order to wreck the train conveying Hartington and Mr. Goschen last week, and in the excitement shots were to be fired into the carriage occupied by the English visitors. The scheme was abandoned when it became known that Lord Hartington and Goschen travelled by different trains. It was next arranged to attack Mr. Powers' carriage in a lonely lane and murder Lord Hartington or to carry him into the Wicklow mountains, where he was to be held as hostage for the release of O'Brien and other political prisoners. The plot miscarried owing to the watchfulness of the police.

Surveys have been in progress for a line from Salt Lake City southwest through a pass in the Snake mountains into White Pine county, Nevada, thence crossing the San Fernando mountains to San Bernardino and on to Los Angeles, and this is asserted to be the route selected for the Gould line. The length of the road would be about 650 miles. This company has filed articles of incorporation in New York for the purpose of building a railroad from Salt Lake City, Utah, to San Pedro, Mex. Jay Gould, S. M. Nichols, Richard Smith, of New York, and Isaac Trumbull, of San Francisco, and J. S. Salisbury, of Salt Lake. Mr. Charles H. Roser, of New York, is chief engineer.—[Railway Age.

LAMAR'S REPORT.

Review of the Work of His Department.

NEEDED REFORMS SUGGESTED

He Advocates a Repeal of the Preemption and Timber Culture Laws.

[Associated Press Dispatches to the HERALD.]

WASHINGTON, December 4.—The Secretary of the Interior has submitted his report for the fiscal year ending June 30th. It is a voluminous document, and gives lengthy details of the various branches of service within the Interior Department. That portion of the report referring to the adjustment of railroad grants has already been covered in dispatches. The Secretary says: "Under the existing laws it is apparent that the area of public land is rapidly diminishing. This would not be an evil if the land were passing into the hands of bona-fide purchasers for actual settlement, but the facts are known to be otherwise. It is a subject to which I have been forced to give much thought, and the conclusion to which I have come is that the most troubles and aliases that environ it can be removed by legislative action, and that such action is the sole remedy. A detailed statement of the work performed by the General Land Office shows commendable zeal to preserve the public domain, prevent fraud and illegality in the acquirement of large arrears of the public lands and to recover them from unlawful possession and appropriation."

ILLEGAL FENCING.

On the subject of the unlawful enclosure of public lands the Secretary says: "The work of returning to the people large areas of public land hitherto illegally appropriated by corporations and individuals engaged in the cattle business on the plains, has progressed most successfully during the year. Special agents report the removal in progress of a vast number of illegal fences, thus throwing open to public use and occupancy nearly 1,000,000 acres of public land.

MORE SURVEYORS NEEDED.

Special attention is called to the several reports of the Governors of the territories, all of which are burdened with complaints of want of public surveys within their respective jurisdiction. "I have endorsed the recommendation of the commissioner for $300,000" says the Secretary, "but I beg to urge an appropriation of $300,000 not asked for by him to be specially devoted to the survey of lands within the granted and indemnity limits of the railroads.

SPANISH GRANTS.

Another subject which I would respectively suggest demands immediate legislation, is the matter of private grants claimed to be derived form the Spanish or Mexican governments. This legislation in my opinion should be directed to two points.

First—To provide for the trial and final determination of such claims, subject only to appeal to the Supreme Court.

Second—An act of limitations barring the presentation of new claims of this character within a stated period.

The Surveyor General of New Mexico states that during the past year an examination has been made of a number of new claims and old claims heretofore favorably reported. There are yet pending before Congress, claims which aggregate by estimate 4,000,000 acres, whilst he thinks that 200,000 acres will cover all the legal and equitable rights thereunder.

TIMBER TROUBLES.

The vital necessity for legislation looking to the preservation of the timber resources of the country becomes more urgent every year. Settlers in many localities feel themselves compelled to violate the law to obtain timber from public lands to supply their absolute wants. Legislation is needed which would look to the preservation of natural forest lands at the head waters of navigable rivers, and also a method of putting within the reach of settlers legal means of providing them with timber for building homes, fuel and other domestic purposes.

WHAT THE BOOKS SHOW.

Investigation shows that from March 5, 1885, to October 1, 1887, the number of entries cancelled for fraud, illegality, abandonment and other causes amounted to 91,078, embracing an area of 14,238,918.04 acres and making the aggregate lands restored to the public domain 45,663,394 acres. The total number of entries and filings made during the year was 248,178, an increase of 1770 over the previous year, while the number of original homestead entries was 52,028, a decrease of 9610 entries. Final proof was made on 19,866 homestead entries, an increase of 510 entries, and on preemption entries 21,402, an increase of 5691 entries. Under the desert land act 2242 entries were made, a decrease of 276 entries. Under the timber and stone act of June 3, 1878, 655 entries were made, an increase of 226.

A CLEAN SWEEP NEEDED.

"I respectfully but earnestly recommend the immediate and total repeal of the pre-emption laws, timber culture acts and relinquishment acts, and add to these the cash entry laws in the desert land law. The injurious effects of their remaining on the statute book in their present form has convinced me that all but the homestead law should be swept from the statute book More than a quarter of a century has elapsed since the passage of the homestead law. Its operations during the last decade have shown it to be the wisest and most honest method of disposing of agricultural public lands and embracing all the advantages of the pre-emption system without its acknowledged facilities for fraud and abuse."

THE INDIAN QUESTION.

Referring to the progress of several Indian tribes toward civilization, the Secretary says: "Surrounded on all sides by the forces of civilization, the only alternatives presented to the Indian race are absolute extinction or quick entrance into the pale of American civilization." Touching the removal of the whites from the Round Valley reservation in California, the Secretary quotes a long statement from General Howard, and says: "Some action by Congress on this subject is required, and the foregoing report shows clearly the character of the legislation needed and the great necessity therefor."

PUBLIC PENSIONS.

On the subject of pensions the Secretary says: "The estimates made by the Commissioner of Pensions I have examined critically and believe that they are framed with due regard to economy and the needs of the service. I respectfully suggest that they may be made without curtailment. In addition to the recommendation of the Commissioner, I would suggest that widows who remarry, and who may subsequently become widows, or be divorced, without fault upon their part, should have their pensions renewed to them for the period of such second widowhood."

THE COMMERCE COMMISSION.

The Secretary recommends that the Intestate Commerce Commission be authorized to report direct to the President, to appoint its own officers and employes and to draw upon the Treasury for the payment of salaries to its subordinates as well as for all expenses incurred under the act.

THE TERRITORIES.

Regarding Alaska, the Secretary says: "Tracts of land producing vegetables and grasses, and affording rich pasturage for cattle may be found at many points on the islands and mainlands. The extension of the land laws to such portions of the territory would be of great and signal benefit and would invite a permanent settlement of citizens. The reports submitted by the Governors of the territories are this year unusually full and interesting. They give gratifying views of present prosperity and express the brightest hopes for the near future in all the territories. Progress in the established industries, agriculture, stock raising and mining has been uniform and healthful, and the development of new resources varied and important."

CHARGED WITH MURDER.

One of Those Indicted Cannot be Found.

PORTLAND, Or., December 4.—The Spokane County grand jury has just returned indictments for murder in the first degree against Delas Beeman, Alex Siegel and Mrs. Siegel. The latter is now in jail, having been brought from Pine City. There is as yet no clew as to the whereabouts of Beeman. The general opinion is that the fugitive has crossed the line into British Columbia and is staying there.

Must Have Their Lager.

CHICAGO, December 4.—The committe of arrangements for the entertainment to be given next Saturday night for the benefit of the families of the dead and imprisoned Anarchists decided that, notwithstanding Mayor Roche's prohibitory order, they would at all hazards place beer on sale at the hall. Their first move will be an attempt to procure an order from the courts annulling the Mayor's order.

HOW YOUNG GIRLS EXERCISE.

They Walk Down Fifth Avenue in the Keen November Air.

Some years ago quite an impulse was given to pedestrianism by the achievements of Bertha von Hillern, who aroused her sex to a knowledge of what they could do in this line if they tried. Miss von Hillern was a German blonde of German birth, who managed to cover a large number of miles in a short time, greatly to the admiration of the ladies She has since abandoned her mission as a public apostle of physical culture, and is walking on the sawdust track of fame, having taken to art.

The taste for walking, however, is getting to be in vogue again with the young girls. Scores of them may be encountered on Fifth avenue any pleasant day in the afternoon

The bustle and other mysterious agencies which enter into the framework of a woman's toilet do not make walking an entirely free and easy thing. But some of the young women get over the ground with a vigorous swinging gait which does them infinite credit. They know that walking puts a rich color into their cheeks and a sparkle into their eyes. It is exhilerating, in the cool November air, and their bright lips, slightly ajar, show a glimpse of white teeth now and then, as they break into the smile which comes so rapdily to them under the invigorating physical glow of perfect health.

It does them more good than breathing the velvety sea air that blows on them as they roll along Bellevue avenue at Newport, or inhaling the pure atmosphere of the Berkshire Hills, where they pilot their village carts through the lovely lanes and byways of Lenox.

Both of these are tonics, and the "bud" of the last season, who has blown almost to the point of wilting slightly during the hot rush of the winter gayety, revives under them visibly. But here in New York they get even more of a draught from the fountain of health by exercising themselves in a brisk walk of three or four miles.

See those two young girls swinging along by the New York Club. They have an action as fine as that of a thoroughbred horse. The neatly booted feet, with an honest heels in the places that the heels should be instead of frightfully high-pitched French abominations that slope almost under the instep, are planted with a firm, quick step, springy and vigorous. The shoulders are erect and well back, and they hold their heads up with a beaming expression on their ruddy faces.

Their gait is a measuredly brisk one without any haste, and the stride is free, but not too swinging. They are out for their constitutional and it does not detract from the pleasure of it to know that many a masculine eye is taking in their points and applauding them silently.

The majority of the walkers are young girls, with an occasional matron, brisk but not to friskiness, showing that Hymen's bonds do not weigh too heavily upon her. It is a graceful and a profitable fashion, and it helps them to what is so much to woman, health, beauty and ease of movement.—[New York World.

POLITICAL.

Synopsis of a Bill by Senator Palmer

RESTRICTING IMMIGRATION.

Everything in Good Order for the Opening of Congress To-day.

[Associated Press Dispatches to the HERALD.]

WASHINGTON, December 4.—Senator Palmer, of Michigan, will introduce in the Senate a bill for the purpose of regulating and restricting immigration to the United States by keeping out persons who seem likely to be undesirable citizens. The bill will provide that all persons coming from foreign countries for the purpose of residing here shall be provided with a certificate from the United States Consul for the district of his residence, setting forth that said Consul is satisfied that said person is a suitable and desirable person for citizenship in the United States. No certificate shall be granted to any convict except those convicted of political offense, nor a lunatic nor idiot, nor to any person unable to take care of himself or herself, nor any Anarchist or Nihilist, nor any people hostile to the principles of the Constitution or form of government of the United States, nor to any believer or professed believer in the Mormon religion, who fails to satisfy the Consul on examination that he or she intends to, and will conform to and obey the laws of the United States.

ARRANGEMENTS FOR TO-DAY.

Should no objection be made by the Republicans to the admission of Senators Turpie and Faulkner, or should a compromise or understanding with the Democrats be reached, the Senate will to-morrow appoint the customary committee to give notice to the House and President of the organization of the Senate and the readiness to proceed to business. If both the Houses complete their organization to-morrow the President's message will be laid before them on Tuesday, and the House called to order at noon by Mr. Clark, clerk of the preceding House, and after a quorum of members have responded to their names the work of organization will be proceeded with.

INNOVATIONS SUGGESTED.

It has been customary to devote one day in the first week of the session to the introduction of bills. Many experienced congressmen are of the opinion that it should be abolished and an effort will be made to prevent the introduction of bills, until Speaker Carlisle shall have announced his committee appointments. The Speaker has already began to sketch out an organization, but owing to the close division of the new House on party lines and the large number of untried members, it is probable that the work of selecting committees will occupy Speaker Carlisle's time nearly up to Christmas. Meanwhile no legislative business of importance can be done. A strong effort will be made to have a rule adopted to prohibit the introduction of private bills in open House and require that all measures shall reach the appropriate committees through the medium of the petition box. This would effect a saving of time to the House and expense to the government. At present, 1900 copies are printed of every bill introduced, and should the proposed rule be adopted, no private bill will be printed until it is acted upon by the committee and reported to the House for consideration.

CUT WITH A CLEAVER.

Savage Assault by a Butcher in San Francisco.

SAN FRANCISCO, December 4.—John O'Connor was cut and frightfully wounded by a butcher's cleaver in the hands of his uncle, John Connihan, this evening. O'Connor said that he called at his uncle's house to make up after a quarrel they had, and that the latter rushed at him with a weapon, inflicting three wounds. One across the cheek which will mark him for life, a second across the right wrist which cut deep into the ulna and divided the artery, a third, which is the worst across the left wrist, the wrist bone being cut completely through and the artery severed. Connihan was arrested and charged with assult to murder.

At To-Day's Meeting.

SAN FRANCISCO, December 4.—It is said that when the Grand Jury meets to-morrow morning the parties indicted before for complicity in Benson's land frauds will again be examined, excepting Benson, who is in Washington. It is expected to be shown that Walter Black, formerly clerk for Benson, falsely testified in the latter's favor at the last examination.

ILLUSTRATED HERALD.

This publication contains 48 pages of the most carefully prepared statistical and descriptive matter about all matters of interest in Southern California. The pages are profusely and beautifully illustrated with superb cuts of buildings, scenes, etc., of the country. This medium will convey more information concerning us than any other extant. It was specially prepared for the recent G. A. R. Encampment at St. Louis, and a vast number of the work was distributed there. A small number remains on hand at this office, and these are rapidly growing less. Come in and look at it.

DAILY HERALD.

A MOURNFUL SCENE.

Funeral of the Late Frank P. McGinley.

One of the most impressive funeral ceremonies ever witnessed in Los Angeles took place yesterday afternoon, when the remains of Frank P. McGinley were laid in their last resting-place in the Catholic cemetery on Buena Vista street. The facts of the sad case are doubtless still fresh in the minds of the readers of the HERALD; how the deceased had been hunting near Sierra Madre and was found dying with his discharged gun by his side, having in some manner accidentally shot himself. He was one of the most prominent members of labor organizations in this city, being President of the Carpenters' Union No. 56, a member of the Angel City Lodge, Knights of Honor, and also of the Knights of Labor, Assembly 2405, ex-secretary of the Trades Council and a member of Company A, National Guard. As was expected, these organizations were fully represented, and when the procession was formed at 1:30 yesterday afternoon at the late home of the deceased, fully 750 mourners were in attendance and escorted the remains to the cathedral on Main street, where religious services were to be held. On arriving there two columns were formed, between which the hearse was driven and the remains were carried into the church where a short but impressive service was held. On leaving the building a procession was formed in the following order:

Carpenters' Union, No. 56.
Knights of Honor — Angel City Lodge.
Knights of Labor—2405—140.
Company "A," National Guard.

The hearse surrounded by a guard of honor of 100 members of the Carpenters' Union.

The pall-bearers were ten in number, being recruited from the following organizations: Carpenters' Union, four members; Knights of Honor, two members; Knights of Labor, two members; and Company A, National Guard, two members. The order of march was through Main street to Temple, to New High, thence to Buena Vista, and to the cemetery. The procession was a very striking one apart from its vast numerical strength. The members of the various organizations marched four abreast, preceded by the banners of their orders draped in crape, and following them came the National Guard with arms reversed, who in turn immediately preceded the vehicle bearing the remains. The coffin was hidden from view by a mass of magnificent floral emblems, some of which were of wonderful workmanship and design. There were fully 100 hacks and carriages following in the train, the whole procession being more than one-half a mile long. On arriving at the cemetery Mr. Willman, Vice-President of the Carpenters' Union, who was marshal of the day, in a very skilful manner directed the movements of the different bodies, so that when the coffin was finally laid by the side of the newly-dug grave, it was a most imposing spectacle. Hundreds of strong men stood around looking with wistful eyes upon the grim emblem of death which contained all that was mortal of their late comrade, and as the priest stepped forward to perform the last rites of holy church, a death-like silence fell over the scene. The solemn words, "dust to dust, ashes to ashes" rang out with impressive earnestness and the coffin was tenderly lifted and lowered into its cold resting-place to be hidden forever from the gaze of mortal eyes. Then slowly and sadly the vast assemblage marched away, leaving him whom they loved

"Where Silence, thoughtful God, who loves
The neighborhood of death, in groves
Of asphodel lies hid, and weaves
His hushing spell among the leaves."

Beauty Takes the Field.

Some of the young ladies of this city who are favoring the Republican-Prohibition ticket, met at Trinity Church and entered vigorously into the campaign. Speeches were made, officers selected, and a committee appointed to draft resolutions. Whilst the committee was out, the young ladies were entertained with congratulatory remarks, in which their power over the young men was adverted to as invincible. They were told to take their stand on the refrain of the temperance song, "The lips that touch liquor shall never kiss mine," and they would go out in the political fight conquering and to conquer. The committee then returned and reported the following resolutions, which were adopted:

Whereas, We recognize in the saloon a destroying influence on society, by unfitting young men to be our associates, often converting them into debauchees that rob the innocent and trusting of virtue, and

WHEREAS, Both social custom and law deny to us the right to battle in the political field for our emancipation from this yoke of bondage, but keep us dependent upon our fathers, brothers and friends. Therefore be it

Resolved, That we appeal to them to protect us, upon whom as helpless victims the curse of the saloon most heavily falls, from this great wrong; and as we ask them to protect us from the burglar or the assassin, so we ask them to protect us and our homes from the sorrow and the harm which come to us from the saloon, as it blackens and destroys those who are nearest and dearest to us; and to this end we beg them to vote at the coming election to drive the saloon from our midst.

ALL QUIET.

The Trouble at San Pedro Seems to Have Blown Over.

Yesterday afternoon when the reporter of the HERALD left San Pedro everything was quiet and peaceable. There were no groups of sailors standing about the street corners; the only place where they congregated was at the Seaman's shipping office. The men met at the office about noon and marched to Crocker's Hall, where they held a meeting which was of no moment, and not in regard to the strike. The general impression, from conversation with a great many was that if the masters of the lumber yards would allow the men to go to work, whether they were members of the Seaman's Union or the Knights of Labor, an immediate commencement would be made. It was stated that the Knights of Labor are standing by the Seaman's Union because a great proportion of the Knights are members of the Seaman's Union also. Great indignation was felt amongst the sailors owing to the fact that Judge Jackson refused to grant a warrant for the arrest of Brown, a specially appointed Deputy Sheriff, who had knocked down a man on the wharf and had drawn his pistol on another. The sailors positively assert that they have committed no violence and intend to commit none. They say that they will try by argument to get men to join their union, but will not force them to do so, nor will they interfere with those who wish to work. It was stated at the meeting on Saturday evening by Mr. Winter that the foremen on the wharf and in the lumber yards try their utmost to provoke a quarrel and then have the sailors arrested. One arrest was made Saturday night, but it was only a sailor who had been on the spree and was rather boisterous. With this exception, the streets and wharf were exceedingly quiet and no trouble is now anticipated

Burying Horses.

Complaints are pouring in from residents in the vicinity of Seventh and Mateo streets regarding the interment of the horses incinerated in the fire at the Club Stables on Friday night. They claim that the burial-ground is too close to their residences, and that the effluvia arising therefrom is both obnoxious and dangerous to the health of the community. There is a special clause in the city ordinance that forbids the burial of animals within the city limits, but it is stated that Street Superintendent Pike has overlooked this on this occasion, and the citizens say that Contractor Donegan, who has undertaken to bury the remains, is apparently permitted to pursue "the even tenor of his way" without official interference.

An Entirely New Railroad.

From perfectly reliable sources, it has been learned that a railroad is to be built from Tustin, a small point near Santa Ana, to Modena. Mr. David Hewes, a prominent and enterprising citizen of Tustin is the originator of the scheme, and it is thought will successfully engineer the road to a rapid completion. The proposed road is to be built from Tustin east along the foothills for some distance, when it will take a slight northward curve to Modena. It has not yet been settled whether it will go any further than Modena.

A Deserved Recognition.

The Board of Directors of the Wells Fargo Company, at a meeting held las month, decided to promote Mr. W. Pridham, who has been in the service of the company for the past twenty years, to be Assistant Superintendent of the Los Angeles Division. He has the charge of the territory between this city, Santa Barbara and Yuma, with 1200 employes under his supervision.

His appointment went into effect day before yesterday, when he issued his first official circular.

THE NEW ARCADE DEPOT.

☞A grant of land 300x1900 feet, fronting Alameda street, between Fourth and Sixth streets, has been made by the owners to the Southern Pacific Railroad on the specific contract on the part of the Railroad, with the signature of its President, the Hon. Leland Stanford, that it shall at once erect and maintain IN PERPETUITY THEIR PRINCIPAL PASSENGER DEPOT on this property. The contract on the part of the Railroad Company is being faithfully executed. Side-tracks and switch privileges have been granted by the Honorable Board of Common Council and have been constructed. Work on the Depot foundation is in progress and will be completed by December 1st.

☞Mr. Arthur Brown, the Architect and Superintendent of Construction of Del Monte Hotel, Monterey, states that he turns over to the Company that new Hotel on Thanksgiving Day, at the dedication of that structure. At once thereafter the force of mechanics will be transferred to this work. The ground plans and elevations of this Depot, one of the finest in the world, are now on view at our office. The building will be 507 4-12 feet long and 141 feet wide; the main approach and entrance being Fifth street and Wolfskill avenue, the trains entering the Depot from Alameda side. The building will be constructed of brick, stone, iron, glass, and fittings in natural wood, and will be one of the finest structures of the kind in America, being completed with every convenience for the traveling public.

☞SPECIAL NOTE.—We have placed the opening schedule of prices at a minimum figure and about one-half of quotations for adjacent properties. These prices will be maintained for a SHORT TIME ONLY, and we shall advance the schedule as improvements progress. The first increase will be from 10 to 20 per cent.

IMPROVEMENTS ON THE PROPERTY.

☞All the streets leading from the center of the city are now being opened, with continuation of official lines of main thoroughfares maintained. Gravel work already done on Fifth street, and contracts for stone walks let, with work under way, being but the beginning of vigorous work on all streets and avenues of a same character. The original zanja through the property all being piped.

☞All the Street Car Lines have applied for franchises to approach the Station, which are being granted, and the owners are in full accord with all public privileges by the Honorabls Board of Common Council. There are already constructed through the property and tracts laid: The Central Avenue Line and Third Street Line; franchises having been granted on Fifth street and Fourth street under an express clause in the franchise that work shall commence as early as practicable. This virtually places all car lines in direct connection with this principal Depot.

☞We take pleasure in presenting this magnificent property to investors of all classes, and feel sure it cannot fail to commend itself for the advantages it possesses. For availability to the business center, combined with the fact that the schedule of prices is about one-half of that placed on any property in the vicinity.

Advice to Voters.

EDITORS HERALD: Speaking of candidates for the Council, of all the candidates Mr. Burlingame is the most absurd. We will look at the contracts for one moment. The whole force of contractors of our large and popular city conspire together to defraud property owners. Why is it? We'll take the majority of the streets, the grading of which can be done for twenty-five cents on the one hundred. The contractors do not bid against each other, but put in bids differing some little, but away up to a high figure, it making no difference who gets them. Nevertheless, Burlingame gets nearly all. I will put up $1000 forfeit that I can take a pick and shovel and grade a good portion of South Main street for less money than the contract price and make $10 a day, let alone what a man can make with the machinery the contractor uses for the work. A good portion of the streets can be graded for one-quarter of the contract prices, yet we are robbed day after day. If a man is knocked down and robbed, the robber, if caught, is hustled off to jail, but here the taxpayers are robbed every day by these contractors and no notice taken of it, only to nominate one of them to the Council to help the rest to plunder the property owners. We paid in to the city treasury over $30,000 on South Main street many weeks ago. Is it graded? No. Mr. Burlingame has so much to do laying traps to get to the Council that he cannot work at his contracts and we are forced to pay in our little $700 or $800 and be out of the money for many months when we could use it to a good advantage. Ourselves and our hard earnings are gobbled up by just such men as they propose to put in the Council. I appeal as a property-owner and a hard worker for the good of our city to all good Republicans Democrats and Temperance men to put a stop to this jobbery by any party and stamp it out of existence by turning a cold shoulder on such men when they seek office. It is a shame and a disgrace to our city to elect such men. They will figure on grading streets at $3 per foot that might almost be done for $3 per rod. Outside of curbs it can be done at that price. Property owners! Don't overlook this important matter, no difference what party you belong to. I am yours, very respectfully,

PROPERTY OWNER,
South Main street, Los Angeles, December 3, 1887.

The Press and Hotels.

EDITORS HERALD: The intelligent citizens interested in the welfare of Los Angeles and the cultivated visitor coming from far Atlantic centers to verify the reports of climate and "boom," must be equally disappointed at two things—our daily press and our hotels.

Harper's Weekly has long kept at its head the sentence: "A Journal of Civilization." How would that sentence look over the issues of the Times and Tribune for some months past! We say nothing of the "enterprise" of papers always glorying in "getting a scoop" on some rival; but do editors imagine the dear public interested in their personal quarrels, or that the press, confessedly one of the greatest forces in our civilization, is other than a demoralizing force when an engine of personal spite, chiefly occupied in calling names and raking up past records. Surely we have passed out of the villiage state and are no longer occupied with gossip or interested in the personal affairs of our neighbors. We have a right to ask for dignity and courtesy, to say nothing of decency, in the papers which come to our breakfast tables and constitute the daily reading of wives and daughters, whom the age has taught to appreciate the culture which distinguishes one civilization Of our hotels, it is sufficient to say that they belong to the 'boom." Thoy have sprung up hastily in response to urgent needs, and not from wise consideration of the city's demands at the time or prospectively. It is a reproach to us that we have not a fine hotel to express to all comers our faith in the substantial and abiding character of our "boom." We have grown from town to city with unparalleled rapidity; but while Pasadena has its "Raymond," San Diego the "Coronado," Santa Barbara its "Arlington," we have nothing befitting our growth. St. Augustine, Florida, has its "Ponce de Leon," its "Alcazar," and "Casa Monica," all new, magnificent in appointments, and attractive in architecture, so that they link that ancient city with the more ancient past of other lands, while eminently belonging to our age and to the climate and flowers of Florida?

Shall we have a structure on Main street that will fit the city as if we e a growth, and so harmonized with its semi-tropical environment as to be at once a delight to the citizen who loves beauty and a refreshment to the traveler who comes to find his "ease" in his "inn!"

We had hoped as much, but an item in the columns of one of the city papers says that "it is proposed that bronze tablets figure conspicuously in the front of the building with the names of the stockholders inscribed thereon." Did the stockholders propose this? If so, does the fact warrant the highest hopes? We think there must be a mistake somewhere. Perhaps brass tablets were meant. At any rate the suggestion is so brassy as to make us fear that good taste will not match the great expenditure.

VOX POPULI.
LONG BEACH, December 2, 1887.

Again in Jail.

Mrs. Morgan, an insane woman was lodged in the county jail Saturday by Deputy Sheriff Underhill. This is the second time she has been lodged here this week. A few days ago she bought a ticket at Pasadena for the East, intending to go to Boston, Mass. After reaching Barstow she concluded to come back. The Conductor saw that she was insane and turned her over to the authorities here. She was released and turned over to her husband yesterday, who came from Pasadena after her with the intentions of returning East with her. After reaching Pasadena she remonstrated and would go no farther, and it was with great difficulty that she was lodged in jail. She has relatives who are insane and it is generally thought that this is a hereditary case. She has about $4000 in a Boston bank.

Future Excursions.

The following first-class special excursions will be run via Southern Pacific during the month of December: (1) Via U. P. and Ogden; leave Omaha and Kansas City, December 7, 24, 21 and 28. (2) Via Burlington Line and Ogden; leave Omaha and Kansas City, December 1, 8, 15, 22, 29. (3) Via Missouri Pacific and El Paso; leave St. Louis, December 7, 14, 21 and 28 (parties leaving Kansas City one day later and join St. Louis party at Fort Worth). (4) Via Sunset Route and El Paso; leave New Orleans, December 1, 8, 11, 15, 22 and 29.

Nineteen first-class excursion parties were brought into this city during the month of November by the Southern Pacific Company's lines. Nine of these came via Ogden and ten via the Sunset Route.

The S. P.'s New Depot.

The New Southern Pacific depot on the Wolfskill tract is expected to be ready for occupation by the middle of next February.

The foundation is already above the ground, and a large force of men are now at work at Oakland upon the building, which will be put up in sections as sent from there here. A large force of men from Del Monte are expected to arrive here soon to begin the laying out of the grounds according to Mr. Charles Crocker's plans.

Handling the Freight.

The Santa Fe people are now getting the best of the freight blockade, and, as stated in Saturday's edition of the HERALD, it will all be in, in ten days or two weeks. The company is now receiving about fifty carloads of it per day, and, what is more, the general credit belongs to Mr. Williamson Dunn, though he will not state in what manner just at present.

Where You Vote.

In the first column of the tenth page in the HERALD to-day, you will find where you vote. Be sure not to lose time by going to the wrong place.

Los Angeles Threatened with a Reign of Tweedism.

Shall Los Angeles have a Tweed ring to manipulate her municipal affairs, rob her treasury and pile up a colossal indebtedness against her? This is the question that will be answered by the voters to-day,—not whether we shall have saloons—not whether Prohibition or the reverse shall prevail,—but whether our municipality is to be handed over to a ring of pirates, or to be placed in the hands of honest and competent men. We have seen that the Republican party has lent itself to nominations for the Council of men who are not fit, and of men who are not to be trusted. It has endorsed and asked the people to vote for one of the most unscrupulous contractors and jobbers of public work this city has yet seen. This man now has $300,000 worth of contracts with the city. If he could secure that enormous amount of jobs in competition with other contractors and in his character of a private citizen, to what extent may he not go as a Councilman, with the power to give out to whoever may be his factotum future contracts? This man will be the entering wedge, if elected, to a ring that will pillage the city of millions. He is sharp and unscrupulous, and there is not lacking material on the Republican ticket to make up a most dangerous and formidable ring. It is not a time for the taxpayers of this city to be led off by a motive of sentimentalism. The very life of our growing city is at stake in this issue. If a corrupt ring should get control of the Council now, it will fix itself so firmly upon our municipality that nothing but a great public uprising will shake it off. It will perpetuate itself, and gather strength from its own evil-doings. Every poor man's homestead and every well-off man's lots and houses will be made to "sweat" to enrich the jackals who will fasten themselves upon our municipal treasury. Street jobs, sewer jobs, sidewalk jobs, public building jobs, furniture jobs and every job known to this kind of robber, will oppress and outrage the people. To avert such a danger is dictated not only by patriotism, but by business sense. The Republican ticket has some good names on it for the Council, but it contains enough of doubtful material out of which quite a formidable ring may be formed. If elected, the ticket will at least afford in one of its names that of a man who has shown all the qualities to become a Tweed. He is unscrupulous in his political methods, believes that the public were made to be robbed, is devoid of conscience, false in his professed principles, and in every way a dangerous man. Around him will rally the weak and the covetous, and a full-fledged Tweed ring will have control of us before we know it. That such men could have been placed before the people by a recognized political party is because that party has abandoned principle and given itself up to expediency. It has tried to get votes by catering to every faction and by being all things to all men. The Democratic party, on the other hand, has kept on in the even tenor of its way. It has reasserted its principles and stood with manly firmness upon them. Not seeking for votes in the highways and the by-ways, it has had no occasion to conciliate the selfish, the unscrupulous and the designing. Hence the men whose names appear on its ticket have come there naturally, and by no forced process. They are good representative citizens, with no axes of their own to grind, and only the public weal to advance. With them the cause of honest government is safe. With the others jobbery and corruption will soon hold high carnival in Los Angeles.

Republican City Government.

Statements are made to the effect that the city treasury contains $700,000; that this is due to a progressive policy inaugurated by the Republican majority, who have ruled the city for the past few years; that these estimable gentlemen found the city bankrupt, and have filled its coffers with treasure.

Supposing there are $700,000 in the treasury. There ought to be. But of that $361,000 is city taxes levied for next year, and just paid in. What will be left of it this time next year? Then $156,000 of the gross sum is for the new City Hall, raised by the sale of bonds. Another large item of $36,318 is for the sewer system raised by a special tax. The several street funds show an aggregate of $150,000 and upwards. This is all produced by special taxes. If property holders on a given street petition to be allowed to improve their street, the council could hardly deny them the privilege, nor take any great amount of credit to themselves for allowing the good work to go on. As to finding the city bankrupt and leaving it well provided with spelter, the very opposite is true. They found the city with a large credit, and they leave it unable to sell more bonds in the open market because its credit is used up. The legal limit under the present charter is reached, and capitalists thus far refuse to buy more bonds. What is there to show for $400,000 worth of bonds heretofore authorized to be sold?

Since this party came into power in Los Angeles they have heaped up taxes to an enormous extent. What is there to show for this? Here is an exhibit for seven years. The first three years show the very moderate sums raised by Democratic councils, and the later figures stand for the exorbitant amounts called for by their extravagant successors who came into office under a great cry of reform. It is a complete answer to all such talk as that referred to above.

YEAR.	TAX RATE.	AMT. OF TAX.
1881-2	1 00	$162,674 11
1882-3	.76	70,824 00
1883-4	1 00	120,221 48
1884-5	1.70	211,286 13
1885-6	1.20	195,282 36
1886-7	1.60	295,176 36
1887-8	1.80	361,000 00

What is there to show for an increase from $70,000 to $361,000? If it be said that a larger city demands more expenditure, the answer is that the revenues derived from an increase of business, more than meets such increase of expense. It is a universal rule that the larger the population the smaller the rate of taxation. Here we have an increase of rate from $1 to $1.60 on the $100 of valuation. There is this year a little reduction in the rate, but this is owing to the enormous increase in the valuation. But our reform Republicans palter with us in a double sense in this; for while the rate is a trifle less, the aggregate which the hard-bested tax-payer has to "dig up" to gorge the voracious maw of this Republican reform is much more money. The amount is $66,000 more than last year, and that year was $100,000 more than the previous year. What is there to show for this? Where will it stop? Stop it at the polls to-day by voting for good men!—Vote for the straight Democratic ticket!

THE Tribune is concerned about the length of the President's message, which is to be sent to Congress to-morrow. Our neighbor thinks its largeness will be a hardship on the printers and on the public. It will certainly cost something to transmit 22,000 words and to "set it up" in type. It will consume some time to read it, too. Our esteemed contemporary is also of the opinion that few people ever do read Presidential messages. So much the worse for the people, if the messages are good ones, and concern themselves in important National issues. So much the better for the people if the messages are the reverse of the above. In the case of such messages as came before the country from Mr. Lincoln's to Mr. Cleveland's days, perhaps the people were wise in ignoring most of them. But it is our opinion that Mr. Cleveland's messages have had very wide attention on the part of press and people. With admirable consistency the Tribune ends the paragraph devoted to this question by the announcement that the coming message will appear in its columns in extenso. It is not obligatory on any paper to publish it, nor on any citizen to read it. If we thought it a worthless waste of money and time to print or read it, we would do neither.

ONE of the devices of the enemy is to beat the Democratic candidates for Councilmen in the Fourth ward by getting up a spurious ticket. The Democratic Candidates are B. Cohn for the long term and Burdette Chandler for the short term. The Republican candidates are John McIlmoil, long term and J. W. Browning, short term. Chandler and Browning are residents of Boyle Heights. They will appeal to the residents of that part of the city on sectional grounds to vote for their neighbors, irrespective of party. In furtherance of their scheme, they will have bogus tickets printed with the name of Chandler on for long term and Browning for short term. Every vote cast for Chandler for long term will be a dead vote, for he is running for the short term; but those cast for Browning will count. This nice little conspiracy is a warning to the East-side voters to beware of combination tickets. They are frauds and only intended to deceive.

THERE is no man in the city who is so well posted in municipal matters as Mr. B. Cohn, one of the Democratic candidates for Councilman in the Fourth Ward. He has served several terms in the Council and always proved himself a most valuable member. A Republican paper has attacked him because the zanja tunnel, which pierces the point of the mountain north of Buenavista street bridge cost the city, as that paper says, $40,000. How Mr. Cohn can be made responsible for the extravagant cost of that tunnel, we are unable to see. By a blunder of the Republican engineer the inside courses failed to meet. The men running in from one end passed six feet under those running in from the other; and, of course, it cost money to rectify this blunder. The HERALD has never called into question Mr. Cohn's undoubted ability as a Councilman. It has always recognized him as one of the clearest-headed officials the city has ever had. To be sure it castigated him roundly in 1882 for bolting the Democratic ticket and running on a hybrid ticket for Mayor; but his defection at that time has long since been condoned and forgotten. We are living in 1887, and not 1882. The question now is to get the best men for our city in the Council, and there is no better than B. Cohn on any of the tickets to be voted for to-day.

AN Eastern man writes home from California, where he is visiting, to his local paper "that water is hard to get." Water is not hard to get in California, if you know where to look for it. In the East they dig for water in the low lands, and climb for wood on the hills. In California we reverse this process as we do many others. Here we dig for most of our wood—and find it, too—and we climb for the larger part of our water. A tunnel into the sides of the everlasting hills usually brings forth a plentiful supply, clear as crystal, and of the iceberg's temper.

THIRD WARD voters who wish to see capable, honest men of broad views in the Council at this crucial period in the history of Los Angeles, will vote to-day for Judge E. C. Bosbyshell, and John F. Humphreys. They are men of high standing, of great intelligence, and of large experience. They cannot be swerved from their purpose, and that purpose is always right. Beware of split tickets in this ward! Cast the Democratic ticket straight.

C. P. THURSTON, of the First Ward, will devote his attention thoroughly to the duties of his office. He has pledged himself to do this, and all who know him know he will keep his word. Mr. Randle occupies a position which precludes by all possibility his giving his attention to his duties. In the First Ward vote for James Hanley and C. P. Thurston for the Council. Beware of split tickets!

FOURTH WARD voters will do well to cut out the Regular Democratic ticket from the head of these columns. In that Ward a thoroughly unworthy trick, unworthy because dishonest, the work of a trickster, and of a trickster of the most slippery sort, will be sprung to-day. Read your ticket. The Democratic nominees for the Council in that Ward are B. Cohn and B. Chandler.

A REPUBLICAN contemporary is authority for the statement that John L. Sullivan, the pugilist, made the remark: "I says Cleveland is a chump, and what I says goes." That is the sort of fellow who universally says such things of Cleveland. The respectable part of the people have an opinion diametrically the opposite of this.

DEMOCRATS in all parts of the city should read carefully their tickets before voting. See that the name of your Councilman is correct and that the ticket bears the names of J. S. Crawford, N. S. Embody and Thomas Kelley for the School Board. They are good men and will attend diligently to the duties of their office.

FIFTH Ward voters see that your ticket bears the names of A. W. Barrett and W. R. Burke. They are the Regular Democratic nominees. They are in all respects the proper persons to represent your in your ward. Intelligent, experienced, honest, capable in every thing, they should be elected.

SECOND WARD voters will cast their ballots for T. J. Cuddy, the regular Democratic nominee for Councilman in that ward. Scan your tickets carefully, and see that it contains the whole Democratic ticket. Beware of split tickets!

JUDGE BOSBYSHELL does not rate as a Prohibitionist with people who know him. He is a Democrat. He is in favor of putting such a license on liquor as will insure the traffic being done through responsible hands.

Beware of Split Tickets.

In several wards the Republicans will try to deceive voters by a weak and dishonest trick. Split tickets will be peddled in some precincts. Beware of the split ballots. The Democratic ticket is at the head of these columns. Cut it out for reference.

EVENTS may claim the attention of the Sheriff's office at the polls in the Third ward to-day. The police office may be on too good terms with the "colonizers" to interfere vigorously. It looked last night as if there was an attempt made to shape matters that way.

Is There a Cure for Consumption?

We answer unreservedly, yes! If the patient commences in time the use of Dr. Pierce's "Golden Medical Discovery," and exercises proper care. If allowed to run its course too long all medicine is powerless to stay it. Dr. Pierce never deceives a patient by holding out a false hope for the sake of pecuniary gain. The "Golden Medical Discovery" has cured thousands of patients when nothing else seemed to avail. Your druggist has it. Send two stamps for Dr. Pierce's complete treatise on consumption with numerous testimonials. Address World's Dispensary Medical Association, Buffalo, N. Y.

Dr. Pierce's "Pellets"—the original "Little Liver Pills" (sugar-coated)—cure sick and billious headache, sour stomach and billious attacks. By druggists.

Thousands of women bless the day on which Dr. Pierce's "Favorite Prescription" was made known to them. In all those derangements causing backache, dragging down sensations, nervous and general debility, it is a sovereign remedy. Its soothing and healing properties render it of the utmost value to ladies suffering from "internal fever," congestion, inflammation or ulceration. By druggists.

Unnecessary Misery.

Probably as much misery comes from habitual constipation as from any derangement of the funtions of the body, and it is difficult to cure, for the reason that no one likes to take the medicine usually prescribed. HAMBURG FIGS were prepared to obviate this difficulty, and they will be found pleasant to the taste of women and children. 25 cents. At all druggists. J. J. Mack & Co., proprietors, S. F.

An Absolute Cure.

The Original Abietine Ointment is only put up in large two-ounce tin boxes, and is an absolute cure for old sores, burns, wounds, chapped hands and all skin eruptions. Will positively cure all kinds of piles. Ask for the Original Abietine Ointment. Sold by C. H. Hance, 77 and 79 South Spring street.

DR. FLINT'S HEART REMEDY

It is Suicide to neglect any of the many forms of heart disease, though many do so from ignorance. Read Dr. Flint's treatise on Heart Disease, and if you have any symptoms therein set forth, take DR. FLINT'S HEART REMEDY.

Sea Sickness. DR. FLINT'S HEART REMEDY is a medicine which has been found particularly efficacious in cases of Seasickness, as it at once stops the terrible vomiting, throbbing in the temples, and enables the patient to secure repose.

Take it in Time. A man who presents an appearance of debility, whose countenance is anxious, and who is subject to spells of faintness, is liable to sudden death from heart disease. Let him take DR. FLINT'S HEART REMEDY before it is too late.

HAMBURG FIGS.

For ladies and children whose taste cannot be offended with impunity, HAMBURG FIGS form a remedy for constipation, indigestion, piles and liver complaints which is as pleasant to take as it is effective in use. 25 cts.

These Remedies are for sale by all Druggists.

ILLUSTRATED HERALD.

This publication contains 48 pages of the most carefully prepared statistical and descriptive matter about all matters of interest in Southern California. The pages are profusely and beautifully illustrated with superb cuts of buildings, scenes, etc., of the country. This medium will convey more information concerning us than any other extant. It was specially prepared for the recent G. A. R. Encampment at St. Louis, and a vast number of the work was distributed there. A small number remains on hand at this office, and these are rapidly growing less. Come in and look at it.

Waste of Tissue Without Repair.

Vigor begins to decline when dyspepsia invades the stomach. The disease, prolonged through neglect, entails grievous loss of flesh and serious waste of the muscular tissue. To invigorate thoroughly and speedily, a sound stomach is required. There is none comparable to Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, since it institutes, and if continued, perpetuates a repair of the tissues, which have declined in bulk, vigor and elasticity in consequence of non-assimilation of the food. No time should be lost in beginning the reparative process, nor should there be any delay in removing those ailments of frequent occurrence, which contribute to and foster an enfeebled condition of the stomach and nerves, viz: constipation and liver complaint, disorders which the bitters will assuredly extinguish. It also promedies and prevents malarial and kidney troubles, and is a prime auxiliary in the recovery of strength for convalescents from wasting disease.

A Remedy in Kidney Affections.

"My kidneys were so affected I have been compelled to get up as much as ten times in one night. I had pains in my side, back and left shoulder, and when down could hardly rise. I was unable to bend my body without great pain. I tried Simmons Liver Regulator and my condition has improved so much that I hardly ever feel any of my old trouble." W. JOHNSON, Express Agent, Macon, Ga.

"Rev. James M. Rollins,

HAIL TO THE CHIEF!

Arguello's Tribute of Esteem to Chief Darcy.

Chief Darcy wore an unusually happy expression on his face yesterday afternoon as he sauntered out of his office to breathe a little of the pure air that was to be had in the street without. Thinking that he had solved the cause of red sunsets or some other equally intricate subject a HERALD reporter approached him and had just started with, "What's the matter with you, Chief?" when suddenly that worthy with a quick movement passed his hand under his overcoat in the direction of his hip pocket. Visions of an interview with a 44 flashed across the mind of the newsgatherer and he trembled in his number 10's as the chief's hand came back to light, but at a glance he was reassured of his safety. Nothing but a mass of sealskin had been brought to view, which on further inspection proved to be a turban such as is patronized by the denizens of the icy north.

"Going to winter on the top of Old Baldy," said the scribe, but the chieftain smiled a sickly smile as he said "Not much," and continuing narrated in tremulous tones how he had just been presented with it by Officer Arguello.

It is a very fine chapeau worth about $15, and is an evidence of how the chief is esteemed by the men under his command.

Club Stables' Insurance.

There were some surmises yesterday that the fire of Friday night was the work of an incendiary, but these seem to be without foundation and the cause is as much of a mystery as ever. The insurance on the stable and contents was as follows:

For N. A. Covarrubias: on building, $2000 in North British and Mercantile: $750 in Ætna of Hartford; on other property: $2500 on vehicles; $1500 on horses, $550 on harness. $400 on fixtures and furnitures, $50 on pictures, in Liverpool & London & Globe.

T. E. Rowan: $175 on buggy, $25 on harness, in Liverpool & London & Globe.

W. S. Maxwell: $850 on vehicles, in North British and Mercantile.

G. C. Knox: $800 on buggy, harness, robes and horse, in Union Insurance Company of San Francisco.

Criminal Notes.

The meerschaum pipes, cigarette-holders, etc., that were stolen from Pasadena some two months ago, have been discovered in this city by Chief Darcy in Martini's pawn-shop on Aliso street.

Last evening as Night Watchman E. McCullough was standing on the corner of Spring and Temple street, he was summoned to Commercial street to arrest G. Edwards for stealing a bottle of wine. He was soon found and lodged in jail.

Mrs. O'Dell, who keeps a lodging house on Upper Main street, opposite the Sentous block, reported at the police station on Saturday night that her daughter Emma, 14 years of age, was missing. A strict search was made, but no clue as to her whereabouts was discovered. Last night she was found at a house of ill-fame on the corner of Los Angeles and Commercial streets, where she had been ruined by a man named Summers. She was taken to the county jail.

Last night Officer Donahue took to the police station a man named J. J. Burke, rather drunk, who claimed that he had been robbed of a watch by some Chinawoman on Arcadia street. The officer took the man and two Chinawomen to the police station followed by a crowd of anxious spectators. As soon as the women got into the station they began to talk in broken English and protest against their arrest. Upon searching the man it was found that he had his watch all right in another pocket and was consequently charged with being drunk.

To Build a Road.

An order was received at the Southern Pacific Company's headquarters Saturday for fifty-one cars and four engines, to move the force of graders, their teams, scrapers, etc. from Santa Barbara to Sycamore.

No one could say exactly what the object of the move was, though it is generally believed that the force will move from Sycamore northwest to where the old proposed line terminated, and continue grading south to Lemore, and from there around the western edge of Tulare Lake, turning southeasterly to Bakersfield.

Some months ago a portion of this proposed road was graded from Tracy, on the west bank of the San Joaquin river, to a point almost directly west of Merced. Here, for some reason the work was stopped, and it is believed it will commence again, and take the route above mentioned. It is very likely the graders may commence directly west of Merced and work northward to the former stopping place, and then turn around and work down to Lake Tulare and to Bakersfield.

There is also some talk of building the road along the eastern side of the San Joaquin Valley from Oakdale to Sumner.

The Railroaders' Ball.

Owing to the crowded condition of this paper Saturday morning it was impossible to give a list of those who attended the fifth annual ball of the Brotherhod of Locomotive Firemen. Those present were: Miss T. Berkowitz, Miss Lilly Whitson, Miss Ray Lewis, Mrs. John Kingsley, Miss Gracie Kingsley, Mrs. J. Moser, Miss Agnes Sheeley, Miss Eliza Osborn, Miss Jennie Lockwood, Miss Mary Kearney, Miss Jeanette Stewart, Mrs Tom Lewis, Miss Josie Rohr, Miss Hattie Bigelow, Mrs. E. L. Newblo, Mrs. E. Fisher, Miss E. Johnson, Mrs. E. Stevens, Mrs. R. W. Kelly, Mr. and Mrs. Si Payne, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. McCollough, Miss Ida Eggleston, Miss Maggie Cook, Miss L. D. Hoyt, Miss J Scott, Miss F. Hitchcock, Miss Bigelow, Miss Kate Hopweiser, Miss Josie M. Hoerth, Miss Nellie Fitzgerald, Miss Maggie Woolsey, Miss Lulu Deeter, Miss Penning, Miss Grace Price, Miss Prescott, Mrs. W. R. More Railroads.

In this way we might glance at the possibilities of the great central belt of States and Territories, of the long stretch of the Californian Pacific coast, of the empire of Texas, of the untouched areas of the Indian Territory, New Mexico, Utah, Arizona, and of the fertile and as yet thinly peopled South. Railway building done! It has only begun. The next generation will look back and wonder how, in this vast country, 150,000 miles of railway lines could ever have seemed excessive, when it meant for the whole area, not including Alaska, an average of less than one mile of track for every twenty square miles, while in some portions not one mile of road had been built to each 100 square miles of territory.—[Railway Age.

Railroad Personals.

Colonel G. W. Luce, contracting agent for the Southern Pacific Company, left Saturday for San Francisco on a business and pleasure trip combined.

Mr. Alonzo Chandler, traveling agent of the Wabash system, announced his presence to his friends Saturday—who were not acquainted with the fact that he has been here for a month.

Mr. W. W. Crosier, contracting agent of the Santa Fe Railroad, left Los Angeles with his wife for the east Saturday. He will be absent several weeks.

An Evening of Reading.

The Ladies' Auxiliary of the Young Men's Christian Association has arranged with Miss Grace Scrafford, who has become one of Southern California's most popular elocutionists, to give a series of select readings, imitations, etc., this evening at the First Baptist Church, corner of Sixth and Fort streets. Miss Scrafford has a number of excellent testimonials from other places. The proceeds of the entertainment will be for the furnishing fund of the Y. M. C. A. building.

The Alexandre Weill Tract.

OLD VS. NEW WAYS.

By a Large Majority the New are the Best.

Hamburg edgings, which used to be made entirely by hand, are now manufactured by machinery, and are as cheap as shoestrings in comparison with the old prices. Just so, every lady was formerly obliged to accept a prescription for troubles peculiar to her sex, which helped only in rare cases. Now relief is at hand thirteen times a year, for less than twenty-five cents a time.

Every lady knows that Monthly Sickness and Bearing Down pains are hard to bear. The Vegetable Compound of Lydia E. Pinkham, Lynn, Mass., cures them and takes away all annoyance. It is not for evil purposes. A well known lady in New York, residing near Broadway, writes: "I have taken two bottles of the Compound, and have used your Sanative Wash a few times, and I know it has benefited me. I don't feel the bearing down pain, which I so often felt before, nor the pain in my limbs and back as was formerly the case." A Northern lady sojourning in Florida, writes: "I am thankful to say I am greatly benefited. This is the first time I have been regular in my periods since my last baby was born, then I do not suffer so with my back and the bearing down pains. Last night I walked a mile to church, a thing I have not done before in a year! All praise to your Compound."

Undelivered Telegrams.

The following is the list of uncalled-for telegrams remaining in the Western Union Telegraph Office, December 4th, at 7 P. M: Jos. Grise, R. O. Campbell, E. S. Page, Capt. Al. Schaefler.

WHY WILL YOU SUFFER from Ague and Malaria when Gilmore's Aromatic Wine will cure you.—C. F. Heinzeman, agent, Los Angeles.

FAIR ANAHEIM.

Home-Seekers, Read Carefully This Column.

Anaheim is the oldest colony in Southern California. The settlers who, in 1857, selected this spot were men of experience in all the varied affairs of life. They looked all over the State and pitched upon Anaheim as, in all respects, the most attractive spot they encountered. The history of the past thirty years, the wealth of the old settlers, the business done in the town and the products of the section fully justify the choice made by these prescient colonists.

Anaheim is situated about 26 miles southeast of Los Angeles on a branch of the S. P. Railway, which is soon to be developed into a main line, terminating at San Diego. The town is fourteen miles from the Pacific ocean, at a small bay known as the Anaheim Landing. There are about 3500 people in the town of to-day, and there are churches of all the leading denominations, a fine public school—about the best in the county—stores stocked with goods of all sorts, in abundant supply and of the very best in the market. There is a bank and a good hotel—with a second now building and a third quite certain soon to be begun. Then a large and finely equipped girls' school will be erected at a very early day. The ground has been bought—an ample piece, three and a half acres in the very heart of the town—and the plans are being drawn. The streets in Anaheim are laid out with regularity and they are broad and smooth, with sidewalks, and many of them are aligned with fine shade trees. The residences in the town are a model of neatness and comfort. The gardens bloom with rare flowers at all seasons of the year, and everything bears an aspect of thrift and prosperity, such as one rarely encounters in any town in any section of the country.

For healthfulness fair Anaheim has no rival on the coast. The town site lies on a ridge of land, and the contour slopes gently from Anaheim, falling away to the east towards the Santa Ana river, to the west towards a wide wash and southerly towards the ocean. The soil is quite pourous and this contour of the land and the character of the soil furnish a system of natural drainage which is quite perfect.

The climate of Anaheim cannot be surpassed in Southern California. Northerly lie a range of high mountains and 14 miles to the south is the sea. The air currents come from the southwest and are always refreshing and bracing because of their passage over the unmeasurable expanses of the Pacific ocean. Here is the place for healthful, happy homes for all comers in search of the very best of Southern California.

SPECULATORS READ THIS.

The above description of Anaheim will be found true in all respects. Go and see before you buy elsewhere. True as it is, it is only half the truth. This town lies in the center of an immense area of the finest land on the good green earth. This stretch of country extends for from 14 to 30 miles around. It takes in the rich North Anaheim and Placentia country on the north. Here the new town of Fullerton is going up at a marvelous pace. It has a hotel, a great many fine residences, and these are being added to daily. To the south lies the richest grain, fruit and dairy district in the State. All about vines, oranges, nuts, and all the citrus, deciduous, semitropic and other fruits grown to perfection. There is a railroad to Anaheim, now, with trains twice each way daily. There is another railroad, the California Central, now being built from this point to Los Angeles. It will be in operation by the end of the year. The S. P. Company contemplates the construction of a line from their depot in Anaheim through North Anaheim, Fullerton and Placentia. A company is now organized to build a railroad from Anaheim to Anaheim Landing, where a harbor is to be constructed in the near future.

Anaheim is, therefore, to be the center of a very considerable system of railroads. She will grow from this on in population, business, wealth and all the elements of a prosperous place. Remember the boom has just begun here. Anaheim real estate has scarcely risen in price beyond the figures ruling three or four years ago. While all around lands are selling at $500, $800 and $1000 per acre, the pick of Anaheim is still to be had away below the lowest figure above. With a good business, unrivaled soil, the best climate in the country, the most abundant supply of water, crystal clear, Anaheim lands are held at less than half the figures asked elsewhere for property in all respects less desirable than this. Now is the time to buy. The boom is on and it will swell to a full tide in a few weeks.

INVESTORS READ THIS.

A week or two ago there came to Anaheim ten families, seeking houses to rent, while they could buy a lot and build for themselves. There was not one cottage even to divide with the ten familes. There is not a store to be had to open a new business. There is a demand for houses and stores. Anaheim has two amusement halls, but she needs a fine opera house. The citizens are contemplating the erection of one. Any person who will build a house in Anaheim will rent it at a good per centage on its cost the day it is built. He who will put up a store will find a tenant as quickly. His money will be invested well for all time to come. There is room for great expansion, the growth has begun and it will continue.

WHOM TO SEE.

When you go to Anaheim look up any of these gentlemen and they will show you that what you have read above is not half the truth:

Fifty thousand dollars spent in perfecting the water system of the Porter Land and Water Co. at San Fernando, and an inspection will show that no system in the valley can compete with it. The company can give any amount desired. Go see for yourself. Office at San Fernando, or First and Spring, Los Angeles.

San Fernando defies competition in the citrus fruit lands. She defies anybody to find a scale bug in the valley or a finer climate anywhere. It would pay to go and see the old Mission, even if one does not want land. Recollect, water in quantities desired by purchaser guaranteed and shown to be already flowing.

Water is king in California. Strangers should beware of deception about this indispensable article. Citrus fruits can't be raised without it. Many sellers promise water but few can show it and guarantee it. The Porter Land and Water Co., First and Spring streets, invite inspection of their lands and water at San Fernando.

THE HOTEL DEL CORONADO, CORONADO BEACH, SAN DIEGO COUNTY, CAL.

The magnificent building, of which the above illustration is a correct representation, covers 7½ acres, and is larger than any edifice of a similar character in the world. It is extremely difficult to appreciate its colossal proportions. No caravansary of the ancients or hostelry of modern times, can compare with it in extent or perfection of its arrangements, or can yield the same degree of comfort, elegance and refined enjoyment as it is prepared to furnish to its guests. It stands without a rival in the world—proudly overlooking the placid waters of the great Pacific, and impresses upon the mind of every beholder its grandeur, its immensity, and its magnificence as a structure. It is remarked by all who see it as one of the wonders of this wonderful age, and regarded as a credit to our great Commonwealth.

Progress and improvement have been almost limitless during the past quarter of a century. The marked changes that have been produced and the wonderful improvements that have been brought about by the use of steam, electricity, and other forces, have been of such magnitude that the world seems in that brief period to have entirely changed, so that the impossibilities of that time are accomplished now with the greatest ease. No department in life, however, has attained a higher degree of excellence than architecture has, or has kept so well up in the forward march, as may be witnessed in the very beautiful designs of modern structures, of which the above hotel is a most praiseworthy and highly creditable evidence. The style of architecture adopted in this mammoth hotel, is a grand conception, being a happy combination not confined to any particular age or school. While partaking largely of what is readily recognized as the Queen Anne style, it at the same time shows many of the quaint and formal features of the Elizabethan order of architecture. These styles have been improved, however, by being modeled so as to accord with the modern American idea of architectural symmetry and beauty—adopting the best of what has appeared before, irrespective of the age or school to which it belongs. Apart from the architectural splendor of the building, there is a charming fascination in the vicinity and its varied attractions, the purity of the atmosphere and the beauty of the view, which seems irresistibly to draw strangers and visitors to this point.

The building, which ranges from three to five stories in height is so admirably arranged that every bedroom is penetrated and warmed by the genial rays of the sun during some part of the day. The verandahs and porches facing the ocean are encased in glass, thus just the atmosphere desired can be obtained. The general form of the building is that of a parallelogram, built around a grand court 250x150 feet in size; and it is unequaled in splendor as it is in the space it occupies. Here the glorious sun has full play on the tender leaves of the rare exotics, on the white marble of the chaste statuary and on the cool and glistening waters which flow from the splendid fountains that adorn the grounds, which are planted with many beautiful varieties of ornamental shrubs and trees, including some of the most delicate tropical productions. In the appointments and furnishings of the rooms, there will be an artistic harmony observed in the color of the furniture and carpets to suit the various apartments for which they have been designed, and the whole building will be brilliantly lighted by incandescent electric lights. Each department will be so managed and the standard of perfection so nearly attained, as to satisfy the most exacting guest.

M 3 The Following Shows the Area and Capacity of the Principal Rooms, which Number 750:

Coronado Heights.

The Pasadena of San Diego, and Charming Suburbs of Coronado Beach.

Look out for the Auction Saturday, December 31st.

To be conducted by the Pacific Land Bureau.

The grand plateau, situated about 4 miles south of Cornado Beach, where this new and delightful townsite is being laid out and the streets and avenues are now being planted and ornamented with trees, shrubs and evergreens, occupies, beyond comparison, the most eligible and the finest position to be found anywhere on the beautiful bay of San Diego or along the shores of our majestic ocean, the great Pacific. On this elevated and lovely location the young city can sit enthroned in splendor, overlooking all other suburban places. They can but look up in admiration, and must, perhaps gracefully, yield the palm and glory to this, the brightest gem of Southern California.

What lends additional grandeur to this scene of exquisite beauty is the framework of his uncommon picture, formed by this white and glistening sands of the seashore, and by the placid blue waters of the beautiful bay.

No dread need be felt there because winter is approaching; no death-dealing winds come there, and no intolerable cold. But the pure elixir of life constantly inhaled, presents to the invalid a new lease "FREE GRATIS."

Coronado Heights will stand at the head of the list of all seaside resorts for health, pleasure and beauty.

The grand and picturesque surroundings, together with the splendid facilities for the full enjoyment of bathing in the surf or still water, boating and fishing on the bay, gunning, and other recreations in the mountains, all add to the claim this locality is entitled to as one of the most pleasant and charming all-the-year-round, sea-side resorts on the Pacific Coast. As the old Spanish Pardo say of it:—"Ese es un lugar hermosisimo," "That is a most delightful place."

For full information and further particulars, apply to the CORONADO BEACH CO., SAN DIEGO.

Coronado Heights,

PICTURESQUE AND ALTOGETHER LOVELY.

NEAR MOUNTAIN, BAY AND SHORE.

This magnificent townsite is the property of the Coronado Beach Company, under whose auspices it is being placed on the market. It will prove to be the grandest success of the day.

It will have three different means of communication—a motor line, a steamer and a fine turnpike road, besides the drive along the beach, a most charming one, which can be extended for a distance of some twenty miles.

Nearly 100 teams are now actively engaged in grading for the new motor line, three miles of which are already finished and the steel rails are being laid.

Trains will be running between Coronado Beach and Coronado Heights in a few days.

A new and handsome steamer will be running between Coronado Heights and San Diego, making regular and quick trips, long before January 1, 1888.

Water is being piped all over the plateau, which will bloom like a garden.

For the speculator it will prove to be the biggest bonanza of the present day, and for the homeseeker it will be a boon indeed.

Nature has done much for the Coronado Heights, the beauties of which captivate all who see them.

Look Out for the Auction Saturday, December 31st.

To be conducted by the Pacific Land Bureau.

CARLISLE HEIGHTS,

A Subdivision by GEO. W. STIMSON, of Pasadena City Property, Situated on the far-famed

Orange Grove Avenue,

With Cement Walks and Concrete Curb, with Grass Plot, Trees and Palms planted alternately in front of every lot. STREETS PERFECTLY GRADED, under the supervision of the City Engineer. FIRST-CLASS RESIDENCE PROPERTY.

Water is piped over the entire tract. A full proportion of stock in the Pasadena Land and Water Company will be issued to each purchaser. This is an advantage over purchasing Los Angeles property. No High Rate Water Tax. Nearly all the lots are 100 feet front, and covered with a nice variety of large fruit trees of 5 to 7 years' growth. This is a choice location, and is the last tract for subdivision along the ridge between Orange Grove and Pasadena avenue. It is convenient to the Raymond, Pasadena and Altadena depots, and close to the new Congregational Church. A fine Public school building is soon to be erected near, and it is only a short distance from the new Opera House. All lots will be cultivated, trees watered, cared for, and streets sprinkled for six months from November 1st, free of expense to purchasers.

This tract will be placed on the market next Tuesday, November 29th. It will pay to visit and select some of this choice property. It is in the line of the finest residence improvements in the city.

EASY TERMS: One-third cash, one-third in six months and the balance in two years. A certificate furnished to each purchaser, showing a perfect title.

WHERE YOU VOTE.

Precinct Boundaries for the Entire City.

VOTERS READ THIS.

The Polling Places, Boundaries, Election Officers for All Precincts in the City.

To-day the voters of this city are called upon to vote for nine members of the Council, three members of the Board of Education and fifteen freeholders. In order that the people may know where to vote, the following description of the wards and precincts, together with the polling places, is given:

The division lines below run along centers of streets. Voters on one side of such streets of division vote in one ward, and those on the other side in another ward. For example—the Third ward residents along the north side of First street, west of Main are in the Second ward, those on the south side of First street are in the Third ward. Those on the west side of Main street, south of First street to Ninth are in the Third ward, and those on the east of Main to Ninth in the Fourth ward. On Ninth street, west of Main, those on the north side of Ninth are in the Third, and those on the south of Ninth in the Fifth ward. The same is true of precincts. Residents along the east side of Hill street from First to Ninth, vote at the City Hall, and those along the west side of Hill, from First to Ninth vote at the corner of Fifth and Olive. The same course of reasoning will apply to all the other streets of division.

The boundaries of the First ward are as follows: Beginning at a point on the west line of the city of Los Angeles, where the center line of Canal and Reservoir streets intersect said west line of the city; thence southeasterly along the center line of Canal and Reservoir streets to the center line of Short street; thence southeasterly along the center line of Short street to the center of Upper Main street; thence southeasterly to the center of Marchessault street; thence southeasterly along the center of said street to a point in the center of Alameda street; thence southerly along Alameda to Aliso; thence easterly along Aliso to a point opposite Old Aliso road; thence northeasterly to Macy; thence southeasterly along Macy to Los Angeles river; thence northerly along said river to Mission street; thence easterly on Mission to the east line of the city; thence north along the east line of the city to the northeast corner of the city; thence west along the north line of the city to the northwest corner; thence south along the west line to the center of Canal and Reservoir streets, the place of beginning.

The First ward precincts are as follows: All that portion of the First ward east of Los Angeles river constitutes precinct "A." All of the first ward west of the river, precinct "B." The polling place for precinct "A" is East Los Angeles Hose House, precinct "B" the Southern Hotel on San Fernando street.

SECOND WARD:

Beginning on the west side of the city where the centre lines of Canal and Reservoir streets intersect the west line of the city; thence southeast along Canal and Reservoir streets to Short; thence southeast along Short street to upper Main; thence south along upper Main to a point opposite to Marchessault, thence southeast along Marchessault to Alameda; south along Alameda to Aliso; thence east along Aliso to a point opposite Old Aliso road; thence northeast along Old Aliso road to the center of Macy; thence southeast along Macy to Los Angeles river; thence north along the river to Mission street; thence east along Mission to the east line of the city; thence south along the east line to Brooklyn avenue; thence northwest along Brooklyn to Lopez; thence southwest along Lopez to First street; thence west along First to Alameda; thence northwest along First to Diamond; thence northwest along Diamond to the west line of the city; thence north along the west line to Canal and Reservoir streets, the point of beginning.

The following is a description of the precincts in the Second Ward:

All that portion of the Second Ward east of Los Angeles street, Negro Alley and the Plaza, constitute precinct "A;" and all that portion of the Second Ward west of the same streets, precinct "B." The polling place for precinct "A" is at the White House, corner of Los Angeles street and Commercial; Precinct "B" at the Supervisor's Room in the Court House, entrance on Court street. There is a discrepancy between this announcement and that in the advertisement calling for the election, which gave one polling place at Lankershim's Mill, on Alameda street. The advertisement also confounds the precincts, giving the western one as "A" and the eastern one as "B," just the reverse of the above which comes from the City Clerk.

THIRD WARD.

THE CANDIDATES.

The tickets to be voted to-day by the Democrats contain the following names, and the voters should examine their tickets carefully before depositing them in the ballot-boxes. It was stated on good authority yesterday, that the Republicans favoring some particular candidate had caused to be printed what is known as a "split" ticket, containing a mixture of both tickets headed by the Democratic vignette. For this reason it behooves every Democrat to carefully scrutinize his ticket and compare the names thereon with the following:

For Councilmen—First Ward, James Hanley, C. P. Thurston; Second Ward, T. J. Cuddy; Third Ward, E. C. Bosbyshell, John F. Humphreys; Fourth Ward, B. Cohn, B. Chandler; Fifth Ward, A. W. Barrett, W. R. Burke.

For Board of Freeholders—William H. Workman, Chairman; Anson Brunson, H. Sinsabaugh, H. T. Hazard, H. T. Lee, J. R. Toberman, Walter Lindley, W. W. Robinson, R. F. Del Valle, John S. Chapman, G. H. Smith, John P. Moran, B. Cohn, William Vickery, Joseph Mesmer.

School Board—Dr. J. S. Crawford, Thomas Kelley, N. S. Embody.

Yesterday morning short sketches were given of some of the candidates. This morning a few points are given of the others on the ticket.

JOHN F. HUMPHREYS.

In April, 1881, John F. Humphreys, the candidate for Councilman for the Third Ward to-day, was a candidate for mayor of Leadville, Colorado. As the writer pens those paragraphs for the HERALD this morning, a copy of a Leadville paper of April 4, 1881, is before him. That paper bristles with endorsements of Mr. Humphrey's administration of affairs in the city during the term then about to end. The encomiums come from all classes of the people. The period had been a most stirring one in many respects in that inchoate community. The people recognized Mr. Humphrey's services as ably and honestly rendered in the cause of law and order. With this opinion prevailing in the minds of the people his re-election was a matter much desired. The pulpit even went out of its way on the Sunday previous to the balloting in order to urge this matter on the people of the city. All classes joined their voices in this demand, and Mr. Humphreys was re-elected by a very large majority. Property-holders in Leadville who lived in cities on the Atlantic coast wrote the local papers urging citizens to vote for Mr. Humphreys as the one man in the city capable in all respects of performing the arduous duties of the mayoralty. He had raised the place from "a sage bush flat to a city," and so acceptably had he done his duty that the people dubbed him the "Mayor at large," and disputed with the Democratic party the honor of again electing him to office. Party lines were crawled over by decent men of all political affiliations, who would not vote for any less worthy man than John F. Humphreys. That is precisely what will be done here to-day. Party lines will be ignored, and good citizens of all sorts will vote for John F. Humphreys for the Council in the Third ward.

T. J. CUDDY.

T. J. Cuddy, who will be elected to-day to represent the Second ward in the City Council, was born in Minnesota and graduated from the Second State Normal School at St. Paul. For nine years he was engaged in the wholesale grocery business at St. Paul and fourteen years ago he came to Los Angeles and since that time has been before the public several times. His course while in office was such as to show every one that he will make a good Councilman. He has always taken an active interest in the affairs of the city and is very popular among the residents of his ward. If elected he will devote sufficient time to the business of the city to see that it is properly carried out.

BURDETTE CHANDLER.

Burdette Chandler, nominated for the short term from the Fourth ward, is well-known to the residents of this city. He has been in the Council and served the city faithfully for two years. It was through his efforts that the city adopted the electric light system. When the proposition came up before the Council to light the city by electricity he was the only one who saw the benefit it would be to Los Angeles. He worked with the other Councilmen for a year before the system was adopted. It will also be remembered that it was through his efforts that some $200,000 worth of land was saved for the city. These things show that he took an interest in the welfare of the city and he has not lost it now. He proposes to devote his time and attention to straightening out the present mixed condition of affairs and is considered by the members of his ward as the right man for the place. He has been in the city ten years and a resident of his ward nine years.

C. P. THURSTON.

C. P. Thurston, who will represent the First ward in the Council, denies the stories set afloat by the Republicans of his ward to the effect that he would not give his time and attention to the business of the city and that he has no property in the First ward. He states that, if necessary, he will resign his position at Crocker, Sisson & Co's and go into a business where he will have time to devote to the proper conduct of the city's affairs. He is a taxpayer in the First ward, and as a proof that he intends to stay there, he states that he has purchased a homestead there, and he knows no reason why he should ever contemplate moving to another part of the city. Mr. Thurston will make an active and valuable member of the City Council.

WHERE HAS THE MONEY GONE.

The following was circulated yesterday:

The city goverment claims to have $700,000 in the banks! Why is it not in public buildings and sewers?

Why is it that the $1,000,000 raised in the last two years by the present city government has not been expended for our defective water system?

Were the bonds of the city sold to put the money in the hands of bankers for them to speculate with?

How do the taxpayers know that the money is in the banks? Is it not more reasonable to presume that the money is invested in speculation or loaned out by the banks at a high rate of interest to speculators?

If the money is in the banks, why have we not had our City Hall built.

The people are paying interest on the bonds that have been sold, and the money we are told is in the banks! Could not the people see the money better if it was invested in a City Hall, good sewers and in our water pipes and reservoirs.

If it took the present City Council two years to get up plans for a City Hall, how long will it take to build it?

If it cost the city $20,000 under the present management to make sewer surveys that competent engineers declare to be wortless, how many millions would it cost under the same management to build good and sufficient sewers for the city?

Let the tax-payers answer by their votes!

POINTERS.

Beware of "split" tickets.

Watch the polls carefully for repeaters.

Polls open at 8 o'clock this morning and close at 4:45 P. M.

The vote will probably be counted before 10 o'clock to-night.

It is said that an attempt has been made to colonize the Third Ward.

City Clerk Teed has instructed the election officers to file the returns with him before they go home to-night.

Thomas Kelley, who is a candidate for Member of the Board of Education, is a member of the firm of Pickle & Kelley, real estate dealers and searchers of records.

Mr. Frankenfield, who withdrew from the Republican ticket of the Fifth Ward, has been kept on the ticket against his will. He is making no fight and would rather be defeated than elected.

It was reported yesterday that H. Sinsabaugh, who is the Republican candidate from the Fifth ward, is largely interested in the Electric Railroad Company, and that he is being pushed forward in the interest of that corporation. It is also stated that the corporation paid his assessment on his stock in that company for him.

Voters in the Fourth ward should be careful to vote for one candidate for the long term and and one for the short term for Council. The Republicans tried to induce a sectional fight yesterday by advising voters at Boyle Heights to vote for Browning for short term and Chandler for long term, against the candidates on this side of the river. By this means the votes for Mr. Chandler would have been lost, since he is a candidate only for the short term.

CONSUMPTION!

ASTHMA, BRONCHITIS, CATARRH,

And other diseases of the organs of respiration, treated by the

ANDRAL-BROCA SYSTEM OF MEDICAL INHALATION,

AND GENERAL TREATMENT

Catarrh of Nose and Throat.

I do not claim that I can cure every case of catarrh, but I do claim that my method will cure the large majority of cases after all other means have failed. The cure is permanent, as can be proven by cases which can be referred to, treated three years ago in this city, with no return of the disease. The fact is now admitted by the best medical writers that chronic catarrh is caused by the presence of living parasites, microscopical in size, in the tissues. The cut below shows these bacilla as they appear under the microscope, magnified 480 diameters.

Imagine millions of these anamalcule in the nose, throat and lungs, as well as the minute eustachian tubes leading from the back part of the throat to the middle ear and you will imagine the misery they can produce. Some go as far as to claim that these insects may penetrate into the brain, and thus cause the distressing headache that is not unfrequently present in bad cases of catarrh.

My method of treatment is to use such remedies as will destroy these parasites for local treatment, and at the same time regulate any abnormal condition (such as impure blood or disordered liver, which will predispose to the development of the catarrh germs,) by the proper constitutional remedies. Every case will be relieved by this treatment, patients often seeing improvement from one treatment to the next, and every case can be cured where the blood is not so thoroughly diseased that no treatment will benefit it. The local treatment is always painless, and can be used at home with very little trouble and no detention from business.

Medical Advocates of Inhalation

Professor Hueber, of the Berlin University, on page 296 of his "Practice," says: "Diseases of the lungs and air-passages present the proper field for the use of inhaled remedies, and the success of inhalation in this class of maladies often seems little short of the miraculous." M 3

Sir Andrew Stewart, writing on "Pulmonary Consumption," says: "By this method (inhalation) the proper selected remedies are made to act on the immediate seat of the disease with most favorable results, far exceeding even the claims of the first advocates of inhalation.

Dr. Fordyce Baker says: "Inhalation when employed by a physician of skill and experience, yields an extraordinary large percentage of cures in diseases of the air passages. It is unfortunate that so few ordinary practioners have had the training necessary to the use of this method."

Dr. R. Hamilton, of the London Hospital for Diseases of the Chest on page 109 of his work on "Diseases of Respiration," says: "Medical inhalation, with proper constitutional treatment, affords the only hope in the great majority of these cases."

CATARRH!

Throat Diseases, Bronchitis, Asthma, Consumption,

Together with Diseases of the Eye, Ear and Heart Successfully Treated by

M. HILTON WILLIAMS, M. D. M. C. P. S. O.

275 N. MAIN STREET,

A few doors south of the New Post Office, Los Angeles, Cal.

Consumption can be cured. This has been demonstrated in thousands of cases treated by DR. WILLIAMS, with his new system of medicated inhalations combined with proper constitutional remedies for the liver, stomach, blood, etc.

Probably no system of practice ever adopted has been so universally successful as that introduced by Dr. Williams for the cure of Catarrh, Throat Diseases, Bronchitis, Asthma, and Consumption.

CATARRH.

To those who are afflicted with any of the different forms of Catarrh, we would say, there is no disease which presents a greater diversity of symptoms, none more loathsome, insidious, and dangerous as Nasal Catarrh, especially if complicated as it almost always is, even from its first appearance, with an affection of the throat.

From the earliest symptoms (which are generally attributed to a "cold in the head") to the various ugly and distressing stages through which the disease passes the patient is hopeful of recovery, and rarely gives it proper attention until certain alarming symptoms present themselves, denoting unmistakably the rapid advance of the malady to the lungs. Indeed, so various are the symptoms that the presence of the disease is not always known, or even suspected, until it has reached a stage difficult to arrest. The disease may or may not be attended by a discharge from the nostrils or throat; but there is usually present a morbid secretion and a frequent disposition (especially in the morning) to clear the throat, and the effort to do so is often, though not always, attended by expectoration; there is a sensation of heaviness in the frontal part of the head, and the brain sometimes suffers to an extent producing headache, vertigo and confusion; it becomes difficult to think clearly and to concentrate the mind; the memory becomes impaired and the intellect enfeebled; despondency of spirits and an excitable condition of the nervous system. Such is the effect of the disease, and if to this train of symptoms (which not infrequently leads to insanity or idiocy) we add many of the more loathsome physical effects, as caries, or rottenness of the bones of the face and head, a most offensive smell to the breath, and corrupt, morbid and poisonous secretions, destruction or serious injury to the sense of smell, hearing, sight and taste, we have a catalogue of horrors which would lead any person to make early and proper efforts to eradicate the disease from the system. Every case of Catarrh is curable if properly treated.

BRONCHITIS.

Acute Bronchitis is an inflammation of the mucous membrane of the bronchial tubes, and is one of the most common of the pulmonary diseases. It is a dangerous disease, as it prevents the oxygenation of the blood, and in many cases, particularly after it passes into the chronic stage, the substance of the lungs becomes seriously involved, giving rise to what is very properly called Bronchial Consumption. In the acute form there is a sense of tightness or pressure across the chest, with considerable wheezing, severe cough and expectoration. This is at first a white glary mucous, which after a time becomes purulent. The patient in some cases is obliged to sit up in bed, the oppression across the chest is so great; the skin is clammy and prostration rapidly sets in, and in fatal cases there will be muttering delirium, coma and death.

CHRONIC BRONCHITIS.

Chronic Bronchitis is also an inflammation of the mucous membranes of the bronchial tubes. When a cold settles on the lungs the disease either ends in bronchitis or pneumonia. If it ends in bronchitis it usually passes off as a cold on the chest, and still the patient does not feel entirely well. He feels tired and languid, and is incapable of taking his usual amount of exercise, and experiences a shortness of breath, with more or less warmth in the palms of his hands. Soon after this a cough appears, accompanied by an expectoration of thick mucus, followed by a hectic flush, loss of flesh and strength and night sweats continue, when the patient assumes all the appearance of having a genuine case of consumption. But this is simply catarrh of the lungs or chronic bronchitis.

In the later stage of the disease the mucous membrane of the larger bronchial tube softens, while in the smaller tubes and air cells of the lungs the mucous membrane becomes congested and inflamed. There are no cavities nor tubercles in the lungs, but merely a wasting away of the larger bronchial tubes, and death takes place from obstruction of the bronchial tubes and air cells of the lungs. The patient dies from exhaustion and suffocation, being unable to expectorate the mucous which accummulates in the passage leading to the lungs, which in some cases is sticky and small in quantity, but more commonly copious, of a light straw or yellowish green. Oftentimes streaks of blood make their appearance in the mucous, and at times there is a disagreeable smell. Persons thus afflicted are very liable to take a cold, at which time the mucous becomes clear and frothy, and it is not uncommonly the case that the patient dies in one of these attacks.

CONSUMPTION.

From consumers, "to waste away," usually applied to the advanced stage of lung disease.

The following are prominent symptoms in the first stage, and wherever any of them exist a thorough examination should be made with a view to arresting the disease if shown to exist: There is usually a sense of weariness upon a little exercise, a disposition to remain passive and idle, despondency, often from no apparent cause, a peculiar sensitiveness to the effect of cold, and a breathlessness on moving quickly or descending a hill or stairs, a slight hacking cough, with or without expectoration, excitability upon slight occasions, flying pains across the chest or back, or under the shoulder blades. The symptoms are more noticeable toward or during the night; slight fever in the afternoon, cold feet or hands, or in many cases blue lividity of the lips and roots of the finger nails.

Inhalations are applicable in all diseases of the respiratory organs, but must be prepared for each individual case as they severally require.

Persons desiring treatment by this system of practice can use the remedy at home as well as at our office, and which will cause no inconvenience or hindrance to business whatever.

I have seen so many of these cases cured that I do not consider any case hopeless unless both lungs are seriously involved. Even then the inhalations aid us in dissolving the mucus and in contracting and healing the cavities, which nothing else can do with the same success. The very best references from those already cured.

CONSULTATION FREE.—Those who desire to consult with me in regard to their cases had better call at the office for consultation and examination but, if impossible to do so, can write for a copy of my Medical Treatise, containing a list of questions. Address
